Grieving family challenges state drunk driving laws

By Elizabeth Ferszt
Contributing Writer

The Seifreid family: Matthew and Rebecca, holding baby Lucia Iris (courtesy Rebecca Seifried)

One year ago last month, the Seifried family of Allegan County experienced the worst kind of tragedy possible: the loss of their 8-month-old daughter, Lucia Iris. On April 26, 2025, a drunk driver plowed into their front yard while the family was relaxing, watching the sunset over Base Line Lake, in Trowbridge Twp.

"We were just sitting in our front yard watching the sunset, and all of a sudden this truck is coming straight for us," Lucia's dad, Matthew Seifried, said.

The man who killed their daughter, Terry Lee Boss, age 58, was sentenced to 13 years and 6 months in an MDOC prison, on March 3, 2026, by Hon. Judge Emily W. Jipp. According to 48th Circuit Court records, he was offered, and posted, a $500,000 surety bond on Aug 6, 2025. He plead 'Nolo Contendere' on January 20, 2026 to three charges: Homicide — Murder — Second Degree (MCL 750.317); Operating while intoxicated causing death (MCL 257.6254); and Reckless Driving causing death (MCL 257.6264).

Boss still also faces a balance of $27,004.84 in court fines and other fees.

Matthew Seifried and his wife, (Lucia's mom) Rebecca Seifried have done everything they can to prevent this occurrence from happening again, including creating a large banner that they hung in their neighborhood, reminding drivers to slow down on the curving roads around the lake.

After also facing several instances of cruel reality following an unexpected death of a child, the Siefreids now are suffering financially.

"Not only did we lose the most important thing in our life, our child, but we immediately had funeral costs; we also maxed out our out-of-pocket max for medical insurance, not only for Lucia's medical bills, but for Matthew as well as our dog. (Matthew Seifreid and the family dog were also injured in the crash). We had veterinarian bills. So we quickly reached over $50,000 in debt," Rebecca Seifreid said.

But they have enlisted the help of their local state legislator, Sen. Thomas Albert (R-Lowell), who worked with the Seifreids to create "Lucia's Law" a new package of laws that would tighten loopholes around drunk driving deaths:

"What these bills do is first put the victim first, close loopholes, and lastly ensure there's real consequences for drunk drivers," Albert said.

Currently, there are no required guidelines for judges to follow in sentencing drunk drivers who kill or injure someone. In some cases, after a few nights in a local jail, drunk driving suspects can keep their license on a restricted basis as their cases are adjudicated in the courts.

But what really shocked and outraged the Seifrieds was that current Michigan insurance laws allow passengers in the same car that struck and killed someone — to file a claim against the insured driver's policy.

Albert explained that his bill would keep alleged drunk drivers off the road while they act as criminal defendants in the court system. It would also require a mandatory 5-year sentence for drivers convicted of causing injury or death.

And passengers in a drunk driving vehicle would be barred from collecting insurance pay-outs.

"It just blows my mind that somebody who is just as responsible for the death of our daughter, a pain that we carry every single day, in the eyes of the law in Michigan has some right to make an insurance claim even though they put themselves in that situation," Matthew Seifried said.

Senator Albert agrees and believes that Lucia's Law stands a good chance of passing. "I've had good conversations with (state legislators) on both sides of the aisle," Albert said. The bill will now be heard in committee before it is voted on the full floor. Albert sees "positive momentum" among his Lansing colleagues. Rebecca Seifreid agrees: "If this legislation can save more lives and save more families from the grief that we're burdened with, then we will be immensely proud and full of joy."

Albert also explained that not only are the Seifried's his constituents, but they are also his friends, sharing that his own daughter is named Lucia, and that he attended the funeral of infant Lucia Iris.

The family has created the Lucia Iris Foundation to help families impacted by drunk driving. The website can be found at luciairis.org

Mother shoots 10-year-old son, then kills herself

By Elizabeth Ferszt
Contributing Writer

On Wednesday April 29, 2026, a Fennville mom allegedly shot her 10-year-old son and then took her own life in their Allegan County home.

Elisha Mulcahey and her son Daniel were found dead by Allegan County Sheriff deputies — allegedly by gunshot, just two days before Elisha's mother petitioned the probate court in Allegan County for law enforcement to pick up and bring into protective custody — her daughter for mental health treatment.

In the filing the mother wrote that her daughter had made "concerning statements," and was believed to be off her prescription medications. A judge did sign an order "directing officers to take Elisha in for a mental health evaluation," citing a liaison with OnPoint, a community mental health provider, according to local media and court sources.

But this petition was not served successfully, although, "there had been a couple attempts, I think one or two attempts," said Sheriff Frank Baker, "to pick her up prior to us arriving Wednesday." But in the meantime, Elisha Mulcahey had access to firearms in the house, and used them to shoot her son, then turned a gun on herself.

According to Baker, when deputies arrived, they "began to suspect something suspicious," and went around the back of the home to look into the windows, where they saw the bodies. "They forced entry" based on exigent circumstances, "and they found the individuals deceased."

Baker stated that anyone can petition the Probate Court for a protective order when they are experiencing a mental health crisis.

According to QPR (Question, Persuade, Refer), a suicide prevention training program in Ingham County, family members and loved ones, and/or law enforcement are supposed to "make suicide hard" — by removing anything in the home that a person in crisis could use to terminate their lives — especially guns.

Additionally, so-called "red-flag laws" and Extreme Risk Protection Orders make it temporarily illegal for a person who has been petitioned to own a firearm during a designated period of time. According to the State of Michigan Attorney General's office website, "These orders (ERPO) let civil courts temporarily prevent people at risk of harming themselves or others from possessing or buying guns."

Baker said that they are treating the case as a homicide, "until it's officially closed," while they "await autopsy and toxicology reports," from the medical examiner.

Authorities also stated that official notification (of the death of the mother and son) will be handled by the ME's office; so far, the father has not been notified. "I know they've been trying to track down the father, but as of Thursday (April 29), they had been unsuccessful," Baker said.

Daniel had been taken out of Fennville Public Schools and was being homeschooled only recently, according to online sources.

Allegan County Sheriff Frank Baker later stated in an email on May 3 that they "have not released the info regarding the mother (of Elisha Mulcahey) as she is one of witnesses interviewed as part of our investigation. I know some news outlets have FOIA requests submitted (for her name) that are under review and will be responded to through the FOIA process. Some news agencies may have received that info through a search of probate court documents."

In regard to the issue about Elisha having access to firearms, while possibly also in a mental health crisis, Baker stated, "Regarding the 'red flag' law question, if you mean an extreme risk protection order (ERPO), that is a personal protection order that someone would have to petition the court. ERPO orders approved by the judge would be served on an individual and it would likely have a firearm provision. I am not aware of any ERPO order in place regarding the mother (Elisha)."

Call or text 988 if you or a loved one are experiencing a mental health crisis. The National Suicide Prevention Lifeline is open 24/7 and is free call.

Ladders of Hope Annual Bash Raises Spirits — and Hope — for Pantry's Future

By Art Nicholas

FENNVILLE — Under a starry Friday evening sky, supporters of Ladders of Hope Food Pantry gathered at Fenn Valley Vineyards & Wine Cellar on May 1 for an evening of music, fine food, and shared purpose. The annual Bash & Fundraiser, the pantry's signature event, brought together donors, volunteers, board members, and community partners for what organizers described as one of the most spirited gatherings in the organization's recent history.

The evening opened at 6 p.m. with guests sipping selections from Fenn Valley's award-winning wine list — the vineyard served as the event's hosting sponsor — while catering by LuLu Cadieux filled the venue with the aromas of a thoughtfully prepared menu. They also donated all the food and their services for the event. Live music carried through the room as a silent auction took shape across long tables lined with contributions from more than 30 local businesses. Bidders competed for handcrafted goods, gift baskets, weekend getaways, and dining experiences from across Allegan County, with paddles raised in friendly competition throughout the night.

Tickets were $60 each, with every dollar going directly to support the more than 7,000 Allegan County residents the pantry serves each year. But this year's Bash carried a deeper purpose. Beyond the festivities, the event served as the public launch of Ladders of Hope's most ambitious undertaking to date: the 2025/2026 Building Expansion Project.

"Over 100 people (109) attended. Between the live auction, silent auction, raffle, and ticket sales, we raised over $40,000 which will be used to fight food insecurity in Allegan County. We couldn't do the Bash without sponsors like Lulu Cadieux, FennValley Winery and all the businesses that donated items for our auction and I want to thank them for their contributions. I also want to thank all our volunteers. LOH couldn't operate without them." Commented Board Member Larry Boonstra.

A Pantry at a Crossroads

Founded in 2012, Ladders of Hope has grown from a small grassroots effort into one of the region's most relied-upon hunger-relief organizations. In 2025 alone, the pantry served more than 2,000 families and distributed over 165,000 pounds of food. Since the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic, the pantry's client base has surged by more than 200 percent — a trend that has only continued as inflation, housing costs, and economic uncertainty stretch household budgets thin.

That growth has pushed the pantry's current facility — an aging manufactured home — to a breaking point. The building can no longer safely or efficiently meet demand. Refrigeration and dry storage are limited, restricting the pantry's ability to stock fresh produce, dairy, and other perishables. The cramped layout makes it difficult for clients to choose the items their families actually need, a model known as client choice that food pantries across the country have adopted to preserve dignity and reduce waste. Accessibility for clients with disabilities is also constrained, and volunteers regularly navigate tight, congested spaces to keep distributions moving.

Building for the Future

The proposed new facility would significantly expand cold and dry storage, allow for client self-selection, improve accessibility for clients of all abilities, and give volunteers the workspace needed to safely sort, stock, and distribute food. Those improvements would ripple outward across all of Ladders of Hope's programs.

Alongside its bi-weekly pantry distributions, the organization runs an Emergency Food Distribution program for families in immediate crisis, a Back-to-School initiative that supplies clothing and school materials for children ages 5 to 17, and an annual Christmas Program providing gifts and clothing for children ages 1 to 17. Each of these programs, leaders say, is currently constrained by the limits of the existing space.

To fund the expansion, the organization is seeking capital pledges that may be fulfilled over a 12- to 36-month period, allowing supporters to give in a way that fits their household or business budget. Pledges can be made as monthly, quarterly, or annual contributions, or as one-time gifts. The Harry & Sally Adams Jr. Charity served as the event's lead sponsor, joining Fenn Valley Vineyards in anchoring the evening's success.

How to Help

Community members who were unable to attend Friday's Bash can still support the Building Expansion Project. Pledge forms and additional information are available by contacting hadams@laddersofhopemi.org, by phone at 269-686-6456, or by mail at Ladders of Hope Food Pantry, P.O. Box 873, Fennville, MI 49408. Gifts of any size are welcomed, and donors may choose to keep their contributions anonymous. Tickets purchased Friday included a QR code linking directly to the pledge form, and that resource remains available to anyone interested in giving.

Ladders of Hope Food Pantry is a registered 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization. All contributions are tax-deductible to the extent allowed by law.

As the auction wound down Friday night and the last bids were placed, the message of the evening was clear: in Allegan County, the need is rising — but so is the response. With each pledge made at Fenn Valley on Friday, that response is taking the shape of something tangible: a new building, a stronger pantry, and a promise that no neighbor will have to face an empty cupboard alone.

Southwick sentenced to 12.5 to 25 years for child porn

A 68-year-old Allegan County man will spend more than a dozen years in prison after pleading guilty to child porn crimes.

Edward Southwick was sentenced to between 12.5 years and 25 years in prison on charges of aggravated child sexually abuse activity and using a computer to commit a crime. The guilty plea came as multiple other charges were dropped. Southwick was credited with 93 days of time served.

The charges stem from a complaint to the Allegan County Sheriff's Office from a mother in June of 2025.

The mother had told the sheriff's office that her two daughters discovered a phone, thought to be Southwick's, recording them in a bathroom while they were changing to go swimming.

Authorities said Southwick was known to the mother and her children.

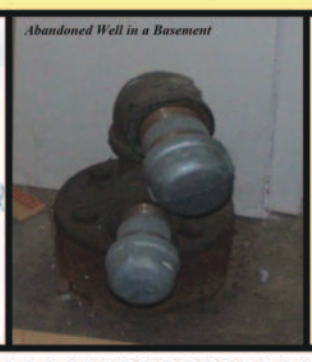
A warrant issued to examine Southwick's phone found at least 21 images that were considered child sexually abusive material (CSAM), according to case documents.

The court document says that later search warrants for the contents of other devices in Southwick's home revealed hundreds of additional CSAM images/videos and images/videos 'similar to those described above.'

PROTECT YOUR DRINKING WATER:
PLUG ABANDONED WELLS

WHAT IS AN ABANDONED WELL?

Graphic: MDEQ



Abandoned Well in a Basement

A well which:

- Has its use permanently discontinued.
- Is in such disrepair that its continued use for obtaining groundwater is impractical.
- Has been left uncompleted.
- Is a threat to groundwater resources or may be a health or safety hazard.

DANGERS OF UNPLUGGED ABANDONED WELLS

Safety Hazard—Each year the Michigan Department of Environmental Quality (MDEQ) receives reports of people, mostly children, falling into old wells. Injury or death may result.

Health Hazard—Abandoned wells act as conduits for contaminants to move from the surface into deeper aquifers. Drinking water contamination has been caused by abandoned wells.

Environmental Hazard—Deteriorated well casings or open, uncased boreholes allow movement of water between previously separated aquifers. This can degrade water quality. Abandoned wells have also been used for illegal dumping of waste.

Property owners are responsible for plugging abandoned wells on their property.

HOW TO LOCATE ABANDONED WELLS

- ✔ Search for water well drilling logs or old billing statements that show well depth and well location.
- ✔ Information can be found by contacting (a) the contractor who drilled or serviced the well, (b) the local health department, or (c) the MDEQ, Geological Survey Division in Lansing.
- ✔ If there are no records available for your well, look for the following:
  - ↘ Pipes sticking out of the ground.
  - ↘ Pipes sticking through walls or floors in the basement.
  - ↘ Electrical switch boxes out in the yard.
  - ↘ Cement pits in and under sheds.
  - ↘ Old crock, brick or stone structures
  - ↘ Windmills or old hand pumps
- ✔ Metal detectors may be used for locating buried wells:
  - ↘ First, locate where the old water line exited the home or building.
  - ↘ From this point, survey the ground with the metal detector moving away from the structure.
  - ↘ Use a marker to designate the location of any readings you get.
  - ↘ Well casings are typically 4 to 5 feet below grade and are located between 3 to 25 feet from your home.

Two awarded scholarships at Law Day ceremony

By Gari Voss

Law Day has been celebrated on May 1st since being established by President Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1958 and designated a holiday by Congress in 1961. The day emphasizes the importance in law and the legal process in protecting our liberty, working to achieve justice, and contributing to the freedoms for all Americans.

The Allegan County Bar Association and courts celebrated Law Day: "The Rule of Law and the American Dream" on Friday, May 1, 2026, at noon with the presentation of the Honorable George R. Corsiglia Scholarship and the Liberty Bell Award.

With standing room only in Court Room D, the gathering was begun by Chad Catalino, director of the public defender's office, sharing insight into what brought him into studying and working in the field of law. Some seeds to becoming a defender of the constitution begin quite young.

Attorney Heidi Wolf began the award presentations by introducing the recipient of the Judge George R. Corsiglia Scholarship. She brought to mind how "Judge Corsiglia understood, deeply and unwaveringly, that the rule of law is what makes the American Dream possible. It is the principle that no person is above the law, and that every individual is entitled to fairness, dignity, and justice. He did not see the law as abstract or flexible depending on circumstance – he believed in immutable fact, a foundation that must remain steady if it is to serve us all."

Wolf stated, "The scholarship stands as a continuation of that legacy. It recognizes a student who not only aspires to a legal career, but who understands the responsibility that comes with it – the responsibility to protect the rights of others and to ensure that the premise of the law is real for everyone."

Brooklyn Wagenaar (right) received the Judge George R. Corsiglia Scholarship from attorney Heidi Wolf during the Law Day celebration at the Allegan County Courthouse on Fri., May 1, 2026.

Brooklyn Wagenaar is a graduating senior at Plainwell High School. In her scholarship applications, she wrote, "In the future, I hope to become either a criminal defense lawyer or an immigration lawyer. I have always believed in upholding the rights of all people, and I believe that these areas set me up the best to do so."

With that, Ms. Wagenaar came forward to receive the Judge Corsiglia Scholarship and thanked the Allegan County Bar for this opportunity to move forward with her education.

Benjamin Busfield (left) listened intently as Attorney Heidi Wolf shared the many accomplishments during his work in the Mental Health Treatment Court of the 57th District Court that led him to receiving the Liberty Bell Award from the Allegan County Bar Association during the Law Day celebration on Fri., May 1, 2026.

Attorney Wolf then moved forward to present the Liberty Bell Award. The Liberty Bell is presented to an individual who is not a lawyer but has made an outstanding contribution to promoting the rule of law, civil responsibility, and public understanding of the legal system.

The 2026 award was presented to Benjamin Busfield. Throughout his career, Ben served as a Peer Support Specialist with the Mental Health Treatment Court of the 57th District Court from 2012-2024. Wolfe described him as "more than a coordinator of services, He was an advocate, a mentor, a translator, and a steady presence for individuals navigating some of the most difficult chapters of their lives. He worked alongside participants, helping them address the practical realities that can stand in the way of success, including housing, employment, transportation, treatment, and stability… He offered belief… Belief that people are more than their worst day. Belief that change is possible. Belief that every individual deserves the opportunity to pursue a better future."

Those who work with Ben know how he puts the rule of law in action and that believing can lead to the American Dream. He has dedicated his life to helping access fairness, opportunity, and hope. With that Mr. Busfield accepted the Liberty Bell Award, and with true emotion, thanked all who honored him for what he had been able to attain.

With that, Judge Christopher Burnett thanked everyone for taking time to participate in the celebration and continue to work to achieve "The Rule of Law and the American Dream".

Two millage renewals approved for August ballot

By Gari Voss

The Allegan County commissioners took time during their April 9, 2026, board meeting to look at mileages which they would place on the August 4th ballot. By a unanimous vote, the Senior Millage renewal proposal for 0.4823 mill for four years has been placed on ballot. Tabled was a ballot request for a seven-year renewal for the Allegan Conservation District that was just under a tenth of a mill.

Senior Millage

The Senior Millage Renewal Committee has begun the work of informing Allegan County voters of the importance of the renewal. Currently, about 30% of Allegan County's population is senior citizens. Of those, over 1400 seniors receive services through county programs supported by the millage. It is felt that the continuation of the funds is extremely important. For additional information, those interested in receiving information or assisting can contact Mcampbell869@yahoo.com.

"The senior millage helps the folks who are homebound and gives assistance with adult day care services that encourage socialization," shared co-chair Mary Campbell. "Day care can be found at Generations in Allegan and Evergreen Commons in Holland seniors can stay for the day. In addition to the care, transportation to the facility can be provided using millage funds. This is extremely beneficial to seniors and caregivers."

Campbell stressed the importance of the response devices, "A real positive is the Connect America personal emergency response devices that give peace of mind to the senior and their family. The millage provides the devices to eligible seniors at no charge. "

For voters who are not familiar with the services provided for seniors through the Allegan County Commission on Aging, they can check the Allegan County website. The Commission on Aging is responsible for distributing the millage funds that affect those who are 60 years or older and reside in Allegan County for at least 60 days.

Those services include:

Adult Day Services that provide daytime care for seniors who need continuous support and socialization while providing respite for primary family caregivers.

Home delivered meals that bring meals to homebound seniors through Meals on Wheels of West Michigan. Campbell felt these are flexible in ensuring that seniors receive meals and have a choice of entres.

Essential in-home support assistance that ensures home safety is maintained. After an in-house assessment, those who are eligible develop a care plan for personal care and/or respite for caregivers. There is a notation that there may be a waiting period because of staffing challenges.

Personal emergency response system that provides mobile wearable devices that make available 24-hour response to perceived emergencies.

Transportation arrangements for seniors that assist those who do not feel comfortable driving to medical, nutritional, legal and/or shopping and errands appointments. Volunteers give door-to-door service with a 3-5 business day notice.

Outreach and Medicare assistance consultation that is available to those new to Medicare and those who wish to reduce health care costs.

The passing of the annual millage is not to exceed 0.4823 mill, or $0.4823 per each $1,000 of taxable value, will be for 4 years, 2026-2029. The original millage was affected by Headley and must be reinstated.

"We are very fortunate that Allegan County millage provides services to seniors where other counties have millages that only cover senior center activities," explained Campbell. "In those areas, services must be paid by the senior requiring assistance, but Allegan County residents receive eligible services at no cost."

Allegan Conservation District

The Allegan Conservation District (ACD) is the environmental arm of the county that addresses agriculture and natural resource conservation needs and collaborates with district, state and federal organizations. The ACD requested that a proposal for under one tenth of a mill be placed on the August 4, 2026, ballot to assist with ACD programs. The Commissioners tabled the request until they could receive additional information.

Previous mileage assisted in constructing the ACD's new facility on Taft Road. Since the move, the ACD staff has been able to better monitor previous programs plus add events and support. Some projects are quite specific and have required the seeking of grant funds to implement.

A current calendar of events includes the popular Spring Seedling and Native Plant sales. There is support to county parks such as the Garlic Mustard Pulls in Armintrout-Milbocker Preserve and Silver Creek Park. Conservation staff assist with story time and sing-along events at the Salem Township Library. Under their tutelage, the Allegan Pollinator Garden has been growing, and cleanup sessions are planned in May and June. The ACD staff also plan guided walks through New Richmond Park, the Wade Memorial Nature Sanctuary, and Armintrout-Milbocker Preserve.

In addition to outdoor activities, the ACD staff has been vital in writing grants and coordinating work on the Swan Creek, Gun River and Green Lake Watershed projects. Supporting agricultural practices has led to No-till Farming practices and equipment, Roller Crimping to control weeds and improve soil, soil pit presentations, and phosphorus reduction that improves soil and water quality. Agricultural producers in the Gun River Watershed can apply for financial assistance to implement methods that will bring sustainable practices to fields. In the forestry arena, aspen regeneration has been addressed.

The ACD staff work to continue maintaining current programs while expanding offerings that will benefit all areas of agriculture and conservation for business purposes and recreation. At this time, the decision regarding the ballot proposal is in the hands of the County Commissioners to approve placing the proposal before the voters.

On again, off again solar project off

By Joseph Schultz

In the on-again/off-again back-and-forth between NorthStar Clean Energy's solar project and Monterey and Hopkins townships, it looks like it is "off" again. Monterey Supervisor Henry Reinart told the township board that NorthStar sent a letter stating it is withdrawing its special use application and will instead seek approval from the Michigan Public Service Commission (MPSC).

Reinart said the reason NorthStar gave for going to the MPSC was Monterey's lack of a Battery Energy Storage System (BESS) ordinance. Instead of waiting for Monterey to craft one, NorthStar decided to appeal to the state.

Although NorthStar expressed its intent to appeal to the MPSC, it has not yet sent an official withdrawal to Lori Castello of Professional Code Inspections (PCI). Castello advised the township that until she receives official notification, the solar project should remain on the agenda for the planning meeting on May 11.

In January, NorthStar Clean Energy – Allegan Solar LLC told the Monterey Planning Commission that a 101-megawatt solar energy system and a 200-megawatt-hour BESS project would be built in Monterey and Hopkins townships. NorthStar is a renewable energy company owned by CMS Energy Corporation, which also owns Consumers Energy.

In February, NorthStar sought a zoning variance from the Hopkins Zoning Board of Appeals (ZBA) to build closer than 300 feet from a non-associated dwelling. The company also requested to build closer than 100 feet from a 100-year floodplain and a wetland.

The request was not heard due to an error in the official notifications. In March, NorthStar withdrew the request. Senior Manager Colin Daining explained that the company was "looking at a different approach."

At the March Monterey planning meeting, it was revealed that Monterey did not have a "compatible renewable energy ordinance" regarding the BESS. Township lawyers and engineers were scheduled to meet with NorthStar's counterparts to resolve the issues.

Last month, NorthStar failed to submit an expected application to Hopkins Township. Amid reports of an MPSC appeal, Township Supervisor Cade Bolser clarified that the letter the township received was NorthStar's request to meet with the township to talk about the township's solar ordinance, and its alignment with state requirements in Public Act 233.(PA 233) There has been no word on those discussions.

Reinart stated it was his understanding that the entire project is moving to the MPSC. However, that has not been verified with Hopkins Township.

According to the letter, NorthStar will file its appeal by the end of June. Under state law, Michigan will compensate the townships for the costs of presenting their defense to the MPSC.

In 2023, the Michigan Legislature passed PA 233 to help reach Governor Gretchen Whitmer's goal of 100% renewable energy production in the state. The act grants the MPSC the power to approve special use permits over the objections of local authorities.

This appeal process is becoming a popular avenue for renewable energy projects. Just last month, Silver Maple PV, LLC filed an appeal for a solar project in Jamestown and Zeeland townships. That case is still ongoing.

RIP Spirit, you were mocked by many, but this frequent traveler loved you

MIKE'S MUSINGS

MIKE WILCOX
■ PUBLISHER ■

The news that Spirit Airlines has shut down operations after more than three decades in the sky feels like the end of an era—and not just for bargain travelers.

For this frequent Spirit traveler, the news was devastating. I woke up to it early Saturday morning. In only a few hours I was to fly on Spirit from Detroit to Orlando. I had made this same monthly trip for over 25 years, probably 250 flights but who is counting. Spirit was my go-to airline. My favorite.

I couldn't make it one last time because Spirit executives decided to cancel all flights and halt business operations at midnight. Fortunately for me I was able to rebook on Delta. My heart goes out to those travelers that weren't as lucky as I. Finding alternative flights can be stressful and at the very least throw off arrival times.

For years, Spirit was the airline people loved to complain about… right before they booked it anyway. It wasn't glamorous. It wasn't comfortable. But it made flying possible for millions who otherwise couldn't afford it. That matters more than we often admit.

On the other hand, my experience with Spirit was phenomenal. I never experienced a cancelled flight and 80% of the time, flights were on time. That's pretty darn good for an airline that many love to bash.

This wasn't a collapse out of nowhere. Spirit had been walking a financial tightrope for years—bankruptcies, failed merger attempts, and razor-thin margins. When fuel prices surged and a last-minute rescue deal fell apart, the math finally stopped working.

Still, numbers don't capture what's really lost here.

Spirit forced the entire airline industry to behave. When it entered a market, fares dropped—sometimes significantly—because competitors had to respond.

Now that pressure is gone. Travelers, especially families and budget-conscious flyers, will feel it first and hardest.

And then there are the people. Roughly 17,000 employees suddenly found themselves out of work, many learning the news overnight.

Pilots, flight attendants, mechanics—these aren't abstract numbers. They're livelihoods, communities, and careers built around an airline that simply vanished.

Many of those people lived in Michigan, where Spirit was a hub. Many of you aren't aware but Spirit got it start at Detroit Metro Airport 32 years ago. As it grew it re-located to Fort Lauderdale, but for many of us, we remembered and were loyal to its Detroit roots.

It's easy to debate who's to blame, fuel prices, government policy, blocked mergers, or a business model that pushed costs as low as possible. The truth is probably all of the above. But focusing only on blame misses the bigger point.

Spirit Airlines was messy, frustrating, and often mocked—but it democratized air travel.

Its bright yellow planes represented something bigger: the idea that flying shouldn't be a luxury reserved for a few. With its disappearance, we may be heading back toward a system where affordability takes a back seat to comfort and consolidation.

And that's why, even if you never loved flying Spirit, it's still worth saying:

It's a shame to see it go.

Life as Performance Art

G CORWIN STOPPEL

It turns out I'm a rarity: of all the last or surnames in the U.S., Stoppel ranks at 52,970th from the top of the charts. Still, with some 6.2 million Stoppels, it's not surprising to discover at least two more of us work for newspapers.

The one near Emporia, Kans., seems to specialize in obituaries and sports; another, Sara Stoppel, is a staff writer for the Thunder Bay, Ontario, Argus. Thunder Bay is an amalgam of Fort William and Port Arthur, which 1970 merged. Her areas are murders and agriculture.

Very Distant Cousin Sara recently wrote "Do we even own anything anymore?" as she fired a salvo across the bow of firms that rent or lease goods and services while misleading customers into thinking they really bought or own something. Companies sugarcoat such transactions calling their bills for providing them "subscription fees."

Airlines have been using subscription fees, which some call a form of gouging, for years. We pay for food and drink, but extra for pillows and blankets on a subscription basis lasting throughout the flight.

The concept has spread to agriculture. Manufacturers sell a farmer a tractor or combine, but the contract mandates that only a company-certified mechanic can work on it, right down to a lube job and oil change.

Rolls Royce will gladly sell you a car, but if you have a problem in beautiful downtown Nebraska, you do not get to own the key to the hood. They do and charge a huge annual service fee to unlock the hood.

The manufacturer also locks the wheels so that only their repair people can change a tire. If you can afford a Roller, you may quibble less about tack-on fees.

For centuries, farmers either bought their seeds from a store or used their own saved from the previous season. Today, planting one's own corn or soybean seeds, especially from some Big-Ag corporations, is illegal. The company owns the rights to them, even if the farmer bought them. They sue and usually win.

As an aside, should you ever enroll in one of the ancestry companies that traces long-lost relatives via your DNA, you cede the right to own your own body. The contract in the ultra-fine print makes it clear you just turned over your rights to the thing that makes you, you.

People not owning what they thought they bought dates back at least to 2007 when my friends George and Dawn were going on a tour of China. Instead of packing 20 lbs. of travel books and guides, he bought a Kindle Reader with e-books.

My late wife Pat thought it was such a good idea, she got me one for our upcoming trip. Seeing Kindle offered 60,000+ books free, I stocked up.

A year later, when I was halfway through one purchased book, the service disappeared. We learned later Kindle was ordered to delete it from our devices due to a copyright dispute, Seems we do not buy or own the book in a traditional sense, but have the right to reread it as many times as we liked. We bought the device, the books we selected were clearly marked "BUY for x amount," but their definition of a purchase is common only unto them.

Imagine the uproar if a bookstore representative turned up at your door in the middle of night ordering you to hand over a copy of the book you thought you had bought last week. Oh, and without compensation. That's what Amazon Kindle did and warns they can do again without notice.

Covid-19 did wonders for streaming services. Remember those bad old days? We could not go to big box stores to buy entertainment, libraries were closed or highly restricted, meaning we had to sign up for steaming services to get our fill. Often, for a family, it meant several streaming services so everyone could be happy. The money started to add up.

After we came out of the pandemic, it became near-impossible to *un*subscribe from these no longer needed services/ Then, surprise-surprise, rates went up.

So it works too for magazines, other periodicals and news subscription services. For years I read Country Life magazine online and received the daily e-version of the London Times. Same song, new verse. The rates went up and up and they made it next to impossible to ensnare myself from them. All they wanted was my money.

Las Vegas sits at or near the acme of such rackets. Check along the Strip.

Seems everyone's finding a new fee to add to our bills. It's not just in the U.S. either. In France (which means "coming to an American restaurant near you"), they charge for each piece of silverware diners use. In Austria, ice cream parlors tack tack on fees for dishwashing, disposable trash receptacles or both.

Finally newspapers, gobbled up nationwide by billionaires, hedge funds and/or mega-corporations. Fewer than 25 years ago, a medium-sized town north of here had two daily newspapers with weekend editions. They had reporters and photographers, sports writers, an editorial board and staff who sold ads to local businesses.

Since the buyouts, that city is down to one paper published three times a week. It's light on local reporting and fills most space between ads from wider subscription services. The paper is of lower quality and smaller sized, but still charges more and more.

For us grouchy old men, local weekly Wilcox Newspapers are owned by one traveling party, publisher Mike, but remain now and here and personal. Provide us content and/or contact local staff you may see writing or taking pictures at events, you'll receive a human response.

Commerce changes constantly seeking money with each technological advance allowing firms to progress even more. What doesn't change are we mugs suspected to pay and pay.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Reader says attempted assassination used to promote ballroom

To the editor:

The United States witnessed another assassination attempt, this time at the White House Correspondents Dinner. Rather than focus on the issue of gun violence in our nation, Trump used the occasion to tell us all how much he needed a ballroom. Let's think about that. For about 10 minutes, as 2600 people—reporters, news anchors, celebrities, administration officials and Trump huddling under their tables—experienced the terrifying reality which kids in our schools frequently practice for as a part of their education curriculum. Did this experience have any impact on the leader of the free world? The very fact that he he used it to lobby for his gaudy, expensive ballroom tells us how invested he is in his own corruption and inflated view of himself. Initially, wealthy corporate donors were recruited to foot the bill for his grandiose fantasy. Now he's trying to convince Congress to pony up $400 million of our tax dollars to pay for his nonsense.

Clearly, Trump is detached from the realities of the world and the increasing difficulty those of us not in the Epstein class are having with day to day expenses.Think of how far $400 million would go to feed the disadvantaged of our nation. Trump doesn't consider those Americans to be worthy of his consideration. So what if they have SNAP benefits cut off? $400 million could assist a lot of Americans with less or no healthcare coverage due to Trump's goal of eliminating the Affordable Care Act. We could go on endlessly about how much Trump's vanity project is costing us but you get the picture. He doesn't care if we are in an affordability crisis; he wants a monument to himself. Something big, gaudy and empty suits him just fine. Perhaps he will top it off with a big gold sign reading "PARDONS ARE US."

He lied about how the ballroom project "would not touch the existing East Wing" of our White House days before the destruction began. He claimed donors were paying for the ballroom as a way to take the perceived burden off of tax payers. Now that he has shifted his focus to having Congress saddle us with the bill, what happens to the donated money? Does he pocket it just as he does with anything else he can get his hands on, like someone else's Nobel prize?

Chaos and corruption have permeated the entire government. Our own Bill Huizenga has used his time in office to enrich himself. He's small potatoes compared to the head spud. But the millions he's put in his pocket certainly show he's right there with the other Republicans who have been making bank while we pay their salaries. Bill is out of touch with the people living in this district. He has no idea how groceries, gas, healthcare are becoming unaffordable. He prides himself on not "bringing home the bacon." Somehow it's OK to reward the wealthy with hefty tax cuts (his donors) while turning his back on the rest of us. Residing in his comfortable bubble, he apparently has no idea how much we are paying for gas and groceries. He is so intent on downplaying the impact Trump's tariffs and War of Choice are having on people living here that he recently lied about local gas prices. Note to his chief of staff: take a picture of the sign at Crystal Flash and show it to him.

When our kids are hiding under their desks with the lights out, worrying whether this is a drill or the real thing, maybe they could think about how nice it would be to have their own ballrooms.

Trump right in going to war with Iran

Dear Editor:

The war with Iran did not start with President Trump. It has been building ever since Iran invaded our Embassy and took the people inside hostage on the 4th of November, 1979. I was in the Air Force at Grissom AFB, IN. The President was Carter. This dragged on and on for 444 days. It ended when President Reagan was sworn as President in on January 20th, 1981. I was now stationed at Pruem Air Station West Germany. Getting our hostages back didn't end the Iranian chants of death to Isreal and death to America.

These chants and hatred continued through the rest of President Reagan's term. The chants continued through President George H. W. Bush's term. This continued through President Clinton, President George W. Bush, President Obama, President Trump's first term, and President Biden. The chants had never stopped through all.

President's Obama and Biden had tried bribing the leaders of Iran with BILLIONS of dollars. Who knows what that money was spent on. Some was most likely spent on arms for Iran and they terrorists' proxies. Some was used to develop atomic weapons. Some probably went into personal accounts. Little if any was used to help the Iranian people.

When I served in Iraq in 2003-04, many of the IEDs our military faced were either provided or at least the skill to make the IEDs came from Iran. IEDs killed and injured so many service members during the War on Terror in both Iraq and Afghanistan. During this time the shouts in Iran continued to be Death to Isreal and Death to America.

When I was in the Air Force stateside, I maintained a computer system to pass the message no one wanted to see. That was the message from the President to launch SAC's alert tankers, nuclear armed bombers, and could be launch codes for the ICBMs. A certain nuclear holocaust.

I know if Iran had developed atomic weapons, they would have used them in an attack on Isreal. We have learned they had rockets with more range than we thought they had. It was only time until Iran had rockets that could reach to America. If Iran had both atomic bombs and a rocket with the range to strike here, we would be attacked.

This would fulfill the decades of chants of Death to Isreal. Death to America.

We don't know what intel President Trump has on the atomic weapon progress in Iran. To make this public would seriously endanger the means and the people that provided the information. What we do know is that after many billions of dollars of bribes and 47 years of kicking the can down the road, the road had come to an end. It was now time to act.

If Iran had attacked even just Isreal with atomic weapons, Isreal would have counter attacked with atomic weapons. I fear this won't end there. Would Pakistan use some of their atomic weapons on Isreal? If so Isreal would respond. I fear that other nations would respond with their atomic and nuclear weapons. Who knows when this will end? How many millions or tens of millions would be dead. The only sure way to prevent this is to prevent Iran from having even the first atomic weapon.

I can only imagine the increase in hatred from the left if President Trump had done nothing and Iran succeeded in attacking an East Coast city with an atomic bomb.

Supreme Court at Its Worst

Dear Editor:

The Supteme Court recently ruled to in effect abolish the Voting Rights Act. It is hard to grasp that the Supreme Court would go after diminishing voting rights which is a fundamental right.

The Supreme Court curtailed the ability to challenge unfair Congressional maps. This will have ripple effects to Latino communities, Asian Americans neighborhoods, young voters, Native Americans, working class districts, and our own rural areas.

The Supreme Court has lied to the American people. The court claims racial neutrality in our laws. Justice Samuel Alito said "the Voting Rights Act needed to be updated and is no longer a problem ". His updated really meant abolished. The courts majority's opinion returns section 2 to what it was before the 1982 amendment. This will make discrimination suits an impossibility to defend. How utterly undemocratic! States that moved quickly to redraw congressional maps: Florida, Louisiana, Texas, Ohio, North Carolina, and Mississippi.

Chief Justice John Roberts has made a career out of dismantling the Voting Rights Act (which in itself is racist). Roberts argued in 2013 in the case Shelby County vs Holder. He said then that the country has changed and is no longer racist. The Shelby decision has led to a wave of measures making it harder to vote.

Leonard Leo must be very happy with the present Supreme Court. Leonard Leo created a list for Republican Presidents to choose Supreme Court potential candidates. He is quite influential with Republican Presidents. Leonard Leo is a follower of Opus Dei which believes in authoritarianism and misogyny. Does this sound familiar with recent Supreme Court decisions?

Leonard Leo rakes in millions personally, every year from his dark money network. How many readers consider this ethical?

The only good news is State legislatures can adopt independent commissions or refuse to condone racially discrimatory maps. The only question is will they?

Responsible voters must look out for neighbors

To the editor,

Every year the Allegan County News publishes a supplement.

Six pages, six columns per page, tightly spaced.

It announces that the "Allegan County Treasurer, acting as the Foreclosing Governmental Unit, is proceeding to foreclose on these properties for unpaid property taxes."

Then it lists our Allegan County friends and neighbors who are about to lose their homes and land.

It's hard to see familiar names there. Equally difficult are the small amounts needed to redeem these properties, many in the $300 range. Nearly all are less than $5000.

The trigger is property taxes.

No one expects public school students to appreciate the sacrifice their neighbors make to fund a school's capital improvements, if they aren't told. But what about their parents, teachers, and administrators?

I think responsible adults should give property owners a break.

Schools evidently are not, given the public school millages for Gobles, Holland, Hopkins, Saugatuck, and Zeeland published in a recent Allegan County News.

May 5 is less than a week away, and ballots are already out. It's up to responsible voters to look out for their neighbors. Who knows, maybe we could reduce the foreclosure list from 500 to 400, or even shrink it by a page or two.

The History and Traditions of Mother's Day

Observed each spring, Mother's Day is a time set aside to recognize the role of mothers and maternal figures, celebrating their influence within families and communities. While the modern holiday is often marked by cards, flowers, and gatherings, its origins reflect a long history of honoring motherhood across cultures.

Early forms of Mother's Day can be traced to ancient civilizations. In Greece and Rome, festivals were held in honor of mother goddesses such as Rhea and Cybele, celebrating fertility and family. Centuries later in England, a tradition known as "Mothering Sunday" emerged during the Christian season of Lent, when people would return to their "mother church" and spend time with family. Over time, this observance also became associated with honoring mothers and providing a rare opportunity for families to gather.

The modern American version of Mother's Day was largely established through the efforts of Anna Jarvis in the early 20th century. Jarvis campaigned for a national day to honor mothers following the death of her own mother, who had been active in community and charitable work. Her efforts gained widespread support, and in 1914, Woodrow Wilson signed a proclamation officially recognizing Mother's Day as a national holiday, to be observed on the second Sunday in May.

From its earliest days, the holiday emphasized personal expressions of gratitude. Jarvis herself encouraged people to write heartfelt letters to their mothers, believing that sincere appreciation was more meaningful than material gifts. However, as the holiday grew in popularity, commercial elements such as greeting cards, flowers, and gifts became more prominent, helping to spread the tradition while also reshaping how it is observed.

Today, Mother's Day traditions vary widely but often include giving flowers—particularly carnations, which were Jarvis's chosen symbol—along with cards, meals, and time spent together. Restaurants and community venues frequently see increased activity as families gather to celebrate. Schools, churches, and local organizations may also host events or activities that highlight the importance of mothers and caregivers.

While Mother's Day has evolved over time, its core purpose remains unchanged. The holiday serves as a reminder to pause and recognize the contributions of mothers and maternal figures, whose roles often extend beyond the home into the broader fabric of community life.

Carolyn "Carol" Mary Wheeler

Carolyn "Carol" Mary Wheeler

Carolyn "Carol" Mary Wheeler passed away peacefully at Ely Manor, in Allegan, MI, on January 12, 2026. Carol was born April 9, 1946 to her parents, Harry and Janette (Wheaton) Wheeler in Allegan.

Carol loved to chat - with her relatives, her neighbors in her apartment complexes, people at the grocery store and bank, and the people she ran into on her many walks through the neighborhood. She especially loved visiting with her friend, Kathy, who was always there when Carol needed her.

Carol was preceded in death by her parents and brother Leslie – all of Allegan, and her son, Steve.

Carol is survived by her brothers: Kenny (California), Elwin (Allegan), Clifford (Kalamazoo), Mike (Illinois) and Milo, and one sister, Harriette Bakker (Zeeland), and her children Tammy and Matt.

Cremation has taken place and a graveside memorial will be held at 11:00am, Monday, May 11, 2026, at Maplewood Cemetery, Hopkins, MI.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Allegan County Food Pantry or to a charity of your choice.

Larry Allen Haverdink

Larry Allen Haverdink

Larry Allen Haverdink of Allegan passed away peacefully on Monday, April 27, 2026, in Holland Community Hospital.

Larry was born at Holland Hospital in December 1941 and lived his childhood on the Haverdink Family Farm in Hamilton, MI to Harald and Sena (Roelofs)

Larry has 2 brothers, Paul and Ken, who processed him in death. He had a brother, Earl Jay, who lived for just a few days.Dr. Jerome, Stewart (Shirley), Carl (Ruth) Wassink.

He had 2 sisters, Lois Nienhuis, who passed away this past year. He is survived by one sister, Diane Decker.

Larry had a very strong work ethic and quit Holland High School in the 9th grade to work full-time on the farm. Larry enjoyed playing guitar and singing at many churches in the Holland area as a teenager

He met his wife, Sharon (Wassink), at a baseball game when they were both 16, when he saw her in the stands and followed her at one point, telling her he was going to marry her.

They dated for a time, and Larry had to be approved by Sharon's parents, Henry and Cornelia (Blaauw) of Hamilton, and her 7 brothers

Larry and Sharon lived in Hamilton, where Larry worked at Holland Color, a builder, before beginning a career with Great Lakes Carpeting and with the Hamilton Farm Bureau for 25 years as a carpet installer, laying carpet in many homes throughout West Michigan. When his back and knees could not handle the hard work of carpet installation, he became a real estate agent in Allegan for 25 years, at one point owning Forester Realty. He sold many of the homes in which he laid carpet in his younger years

Larry and Sharon enjoyed traveling in their younger years with their 2 children, Rick and Daryl, visiting many historical sites along the East Coast and Midwest

This year, they celebrated their 65th anniversary. They loved to travel and became seasonal campers at Saugatuck KOA for several years

When Larry and Sharon retired, they enjoyed going to Amish Country in Ohio to towns like Wooster, Sugarcreek, Walnut Creek, and Berlin. And if you were foolish enough to ask about their time in Ohio, Larry could have you sit and listen for 2 or 4 hours on the Amish Adventures in Ohio. If you were at their house, you were going to spend an hour watching the movies Larry shot of the Amish area, and on Sunday mornings of the Amish going to church on Sunday

There was a time when Larry and Sharon became involved with an Amish family, Levi and Kathy Schlabach, and their extended family, selling the furniture that Levi's factory produced and selling it from their home in Hamilton. That meant renting a U-Haul truck and packing it full with the chairs and rockers they would paint and sell. Larry built a garage-type building next to their house to store the furniture. Rick and Daryl became very concerned about their parents around this time

Larry enjoyed his life from birth til death. Sharon followed along for the ride

Larry is survived by his wonderful wife, Sharon. His sister Diane (Gary) Dekker. His brother-in-law Marvin Nienhuis, Don (Lorna) , Vern (Lynn), Hugh (Paula), Bob Wassink, and sister-in-law Marilyn. His children are Rick (Kristi Gates) and Daryl (Vicki Kraai). 3 grandchildren, Trevor, Jazzmine, George (Amber). 3 great-grandchildren, Luca, Hunter, and Kiana, and many nieces and nephews.

Visitation will be on Monday, May 18, at Hamilton Reformed Church, with the Reverend Kevin Hart. Visit with the family will be from 10:00 a.m. to 10:45 a.m., with a Memorial Service to follow at 11:00 a.m., followed by a light lunch.

We would like to thank the Holland Hospital ER team, Luke, Becky, Laurie, Dr Sebald from G.I., Dr Jameson, and Amanda.

The entire stall at Holland Hospital. Dr Khreiss and staff. Reverend Hart. And the Interventional Radiology Team (Kim, Matt), Home Health Care of Holland Hospital (Leah, Tammy, and the rest of the staff), and the Fresenius Medical team. And many others

AHS English Dept. hands out several awards

By Kim Sparks & Gari Voss

Tuesday, April 28, 2026, the English Department at Allegan High School hosted their 28th annual Tiger Tales reception in the Media Center. Longtime English teacher, Jennifer Conrad, hosted this year's awards after securing the judges and significant donations that allowed the English Department to give away more awards with larger award amounts.

Donations came from the generosity of the Hunziker family and the Allegan Area Arts Council. Mary Hunziker was a long time English teacher, who taught at both the middle school and high school over her tenure before retiring.

Hunziker said, "I loved teaching writing and being privy to the potential and talent in our students. It's important to me and my family that APS students have this opportunity to challenge themselves as writers and showcase their work. I also see it as an opportunity to support my former ELA colleagues in their efforts to encourage their writers. [They] have worked so hard to continue the Tiger Tales tradition and deserve support in doing so."

Students in grades 9-12 submitted personal narratives, poetry and web banner designs. This year's winners received gift cards in various amounts for their talents.

The following students placed in the following categories:

Personal Narrative

• 1st ($100 gift card) Bailee Dilley, "Learning to Fly"

• 2nd ($50 gift card) Tianna Gilbert, Untitled

• 3rd ($25 gift card) Sophia Augustine, "Who Am I?"

Poetry

• 1st ($100 gift card) Ashlyyn Pullen, "Buried Is Not the Same as Gone"

• 2nd ($50 gift card) Alexis McCoy, "Funeral Bunny"

• 3rd ($25 gift card) Lyla Crisp, "A Shiny Golden Medal"

• HM: Valentina Fernandes Turaca Oliveira, "The White Rosary"

• HM: Kyrstin Herren, "Summer Loss"

Website Banner Artwork

• 1st ($100 gift card) Dylan Larabel-Holtsclaw

The Tiger Tales Contest began in 1998 when staff and community members recognized the talent of Allegan High School students. Since that time, students have submitted a wonderful array of short stories, formal essays, personal narratives, poetry, editorials, and cover art. The winning pieces were originally shared in a print format, but to reach a wider audience, the pieces have been digitalized and can be viewed at ahstigertales.org.

Unified Basketball players and their Links took a moment to pose before the Spiders and Wasps teams met on the court. With every great play and shot, there were high fives between players and cheers from the crowd gathered for the 3rd Annual Unified Basketball Game at L.E. White Middle School on May 1, 2026. Middle School Tigers celebrate inclusion

By Gari Voss

L.E. White Middle School celebrates inclusion every day, but to punctuate the importance of ensuring that each student is valued, the week of April 27 – May 1, 2026, was set aside to accentuate their daily beliefs.

To begin the week, the Student Council made a video for the whole school that announced the spirit days' themes. On Monday, students wore comfy clothes that promoted inclusion, kindness, and school spirit. Tuesday brought Inside Out Day or a color that would match how they felt that day. Wednesday brought warmer thoughts with Tropical Day and tropical wear to celebrate ohana which means family. Thursday demonstrated how blending can bring beautiful togetherness with Tye Dye clothing.

Friday was an extremely special day as students and staff wore their spirit orange and black. The day was highlighted with the 3rd Annual Unified Basketball Game. The Middle School band provided extra spirit, the Allegan Tiger was in attendance to encourage players, and an announcer who knew all of the players provided play-by-play narration. The student body, parents, family and community members filled the stands and cheered on the Spiders and Wasps.

The Links Program provided support students, called Links, who played alongside special needs students to lend guidance, support, and a little assistance. The special needs students took control of the ball and the shooting to create a mini-Special Olympics basketball game right in the L.E. White gymnasium.

Summit to address housing needs

By Gari Voss

The 2 nd Allegan County Housing Summit will gather municipal leaders, developers, builders, and advocates for housing to the Griswold Auditorium, 401 Hubbard Street in Allegan on Friday, May 8, 2026, from 8am-2pm. The goal is to learn more about how to address the housing shortage in Allegan County.

The 1 st Housing Summit in 2025 was able to begin addressing the county's approximate 6,200-unit housing shortage. The 2 nd Housing Summit aims to expand the audience in order to reach a wider cross-section of Allegan County and address issues encountered when designing a development.

"This is really just a follow-up to the housing summit we held last year, and trying to answer some of the questions that I have been running into across the county," says Chris Kleinjans, the Allegan County Community Foundation's (ACCF) community impact officer.

The Allegan County Community Foundation began examining the housing shortage in 2023.

By attending over 120 meetings and 13 conferences, plus engaging Bowen National Reach to conduct a housing assessment, the ACCF staff better understood the need to build a network of developers, government leaders, and housing advocates.

Working with the information collected by the assessment, Chris Kleinjans was hired to lead the Allegan County Housing Initiative. This led to a coalition of organizations and agencies that include ACCF, Community Action of Allegan County (CAAC), Allegan Area ESA, Heart of West Michigan United Way, OnPoint, and Allegan County government officials.

The 2 nd Summit sessions will focus on topics to help units of government identify local solutions to the housing dilemma. The sessions will cover zoning information, alternative housing, and how one community has been addressing the housing needs.

In a recent interview, Kleinjans shared that the topics selected would benefit the discussion and development of housing specifically for Allegan County.

Zoning for Housing in Allegan County will feature Leah DuMouchel, AICP, of Michigan Association of Planning (MAP) and Lori Castello, AICP, of Professional Code Inspections of Michigan, who will cover tools like a digital zoning atlas.

The New Face of Modular & Manufactured Housing will be led by Scott Myhre of Clayton Homes and Theresa Gillotti from the Community Economic Development Association of Michigan (CEDAM) and will examine the benefits of manufactured housing.

[Re]introducing the Traditionally-Sized Home will be explored with Paul Sachs, Director of the Ottawa County Office of Strategic Impact and will address the ordinances related to housing sizes. "Steps to Community-Supported Growth: Housing Reform and Partnerships in Fennville" will summarize the steps taken by the City of Fennville and will be led by Micah Machiela, DDA Coordinator, and Katie Beemer, City Administrator.

The emphasis is to assist municipalities to begin discussions to identify ways they can address needs and close the housing gap. The summit can introduce community leaders to resources that can assist with local projects.

"By bringing developers, municipal staff and elected officials into a room, we create more energy towards that solution," Kleinjans added. "Progress will take time."

RELIGION SECTION

The 10 Commandments are back in the news, and not just because of the legal rulings that permit posting them in public schools. The 8th Commandment gained some traction the past week or so. That is the one about not stealing. It seems that an social influencer told her followers that she sees nothing wrong with taking a bit of fruit and vegetable from a grocery, or anything else from a store without paying for it. Her favorite hunting ground is Whole Foods.

Her rationale appears to be a combination of the old, "they'll never miss just one apple" with a modern twist, "the owner and board of directors and top employees already have enough money. Petty theft will never hurt them." As the Church Lady on Saturday Night Live used to ask, "Well, isn't that special?"

Not surprisingly, the discussion of her comments soon spread well beyond her many on-line followers, and by the latter part of April there was a segment on many talk-radio programs. Very likely, it was the topic of a number of Sunday morning sermons.

Most of us grew up with some fairly strict rules such as 'keep your hands to yourself,' and never take something that doesn't belong to you. If we broke those rules there were the dreaded consequences, that could be anything from after school detention to much worse. The Olds warned us it would go on our Permanent Record up in heaven or end up in Juvenile Hall. On the whole, the fear factor was a good thing for us. We learned the basic rules of life, such as the Golden One, and keeping the Commandments.

Sometimes we learned another fierce reality of disobedience. The better part of 7 decades ago I was in an Osco Drug Store and shoplifted a five-cent plastic tube bean shooter. I got away with it, but on the walk down the street someone was walking behind me. I kept turning around, and the woman said, "It's okay. I'm not following you." That was a big relief, but that was my first and last foray into petty theft. The statute of limitations no longer applies, but the memory stays with me.

There is something else very wrong with this influencer's brazen embrace of shoplifting. She justified it by saying that the owners of the corporate already made enough money, so stealing something wouldn't put them in the county poor house. She was right about that. No matter what happens, they will continue to get their huge salaries, bonus checks, and stock options.

The persons who will pay and suffer for petty theft are the other customers. The manager will simply raise the prices. If someone steals from the store, others make up the difference. I don't see that as anything close to being right.

The Ten Commandments were never intended to punish or rein in our fun. They are words of liberation that enable us to lead a full, joyous, and abundant life.

Wayland edges out Otsego, Plainwell at M-39 Challenge

By Jason Wesseldyk
Sports Editor

OTSEGO—Behind medalist honors from Jaden Osterhout, the Wayland boys golf team captured the team title at the M-89 Challenge held at The LYNX Golf Course on Friday, May 1.

Osterhout carded a 4-over-par 76 to earn individual medalist honors, setting the tone for a Wayland squad that finished with a team score of 331.

The Wildcats edged runner-up Otsego and Plainwell, who both posted 337. Hamilton placed fourth with a 346, followed by Saugatuck (347) and Allegan (379). Otsego's second team finished seventh at 394.

The individual win proved pivotal, as Wayland placed two golfers among the top six and four inside the top 15.

Otsego's Cooper Mejeur and Plainwell's Drew Rayman each shot 78 to tie for runner-up medalist honors, while Hamilton's Dominic Schipper followed with an 81.

Saugatuck's Grant Schrotenboer and Wayland's Shane Koon both carded 83s to round out the top five.

Otsego's Roman Busscher, Plainwell's Sawyer McCall, Saugatuck's Nickolas Mohr and Wayland's Carson Sipkema each finished at 84 to tie for seventh.

Rounding out the team scoring for Wayland were Hustler Sok (88) and Brayden Calkins (90).

Noah Kuebler had the top showing for Allegan, tying for 21st with a 92.

"The Wayland Union Wildcats will now be enshrined on our M-89 Challenge Wall of Fame forever. Another fun day of competition at The LYNX," event organizers said.

Clippers, Trailblazers split twin bill on baseball diamond

By Jason Wesseldyk
Sports Editor

MARTIN — It took extra innings to decide the opener, and Haylen Buell made sure it ended in Martin's favor.

Buell delivered a walk-off single in the bottom of the eighth inning to lift the Clippers to a 3-2 win over Saugatuck in the first game of a SAC doubleheader Tuesday, April 28. Saugatuck responded in the nightcap, using a big inning to pull away for a 12-9 victory and earn the split.

The opener was a pitcher's duel throughout, with both teams getting strong efforts on the mound. Martin struck out 10 batters, while Saugatuck finished with eight strikeouts.

Saugatuck grabbed a 1-0 lead in the third inning on a dropped third strike that allowed a run to score, but Buell answered in the fourth with a solo home run to center field to even things up.

The Clippers took a 2-1 lead in the sixth when an error brought home a run, before Saugatuck capitalized on a Martin miscue in the seventh to tie the game at 2-2.

That set the stage for the eighth.

Anderson Keeler reached base and eventually came around to score on Buell's single to right, sealing the win.

"Haylen put the team on his back the first game," Martin coach Brad Blauvelt said. "With the home run and then he came in and closed the door. He continues to be as advertised."

Keeler started on the mound for Martin and allowed just two hits and one unearned run over five innings, striking out four. Buell came on in relief to finish it off.

At the plate, Keeler, Buell and Zaiden Buell each had two hits for the Clippers.

Saugatuck's Holden Burd turned in a strong outing despite taking the loss, going 7 2/3 innings while allowing five hits and three runs (one earned) with eight strikeouts.

"Our pitchers did a good job at limiting free bases in both games," Saugatuck coach Jaden Grigg said. "Holden Burd and Braison Jones have been excellent on the mound all year and continued that trend."

After being limited offensively in the opener, Saugatuck's bats came alive in Game 2.

Martin jumped out to a 4-0 lead in the first inning, taking advantage of an error, an RBI groundout from Jackson Kennedy and an RBI single by Jace Brinkhuis.

But the momentum shifted in the fifth.

Saugatuck erupted for seven runs in the inning — all with two outs — to take an 8-4 lead and never looked back.

"The second game we had one bad inning, they scored all seven runs while we had two outs," Blauvelt said. "We are learning more about our team every game."

The Clippers stayed within striking distance, finishing with 10 hits. Brinkhuis led the way with three hits, while Blake Sweeting added two. Cody Wooten and Haylen Buell each drove in two runs.

Saugatuck, meanwhile, made the most of its opportunities.

"Offensively, we struggled in Game 1," Grigg said. "Martin had a very good staff that limited the entirety of our lineup. We were able to take advantage of free bases in Game 2, which led to our 12-run outburst."

Holden Burd led Saugatuck at the plate in the nightcap, going 2-for-4 with two RBIs, while Nolan LaLonde, Morgan Davis, Soren Peterson and Kevin Vandam each added hits. LaLonde and Braison Jones also scored two runs apiece.

LaLonde also saw time on the mound in relief, while Jones handled the bulk of the innings in Game 2.

"Nolan LaLonde has done a good job at stepping up in relief when needed," Grigg said. "Defensively, we need to do a better job at limiting mistakes; too many of our runs in conference play have been unearned."

Despite the split, both coaches saw positives moving forward.

"We talk a lot about winning close games against good pitching and we did just that in the first game," Blauvelt said. "We will have to do that in the postseason, so I am really proud of the team for the first game."

Grigg echoed a similar sentiment.

"We look to keep improving, and we will need to play much cleaner baseball if we want to make a run in the postseason," he said.

Tigers dominate during busy week

By Jason Wesseldyk
Sports Editor

It wasn't just the wins. It was how they came.

Nine matches in five days. Cold weather. Late nights. Minimal rest.

And at the end of it all, the Allegan girls tennis team didn't just survive the stretch — it dominated it.

The Tigers went a perfect 9-0 between April 28 and May 2, compiling a 66-6 record across all flights during that span while putting the finishing touches on a record-setting regular season.

"What an incredible display these ladies put on this week," Allegan coach Damien Arthur said. "Cold weather, tough competition, late nights, and very little rest. Just wow."

By the time the week was complete, the Tigers had not only added nine more wins to their record, but also cemented their place in the program record book.

Among the milestones:

* Most team dual match wins (22), surpassing the previous record of 17 set in 2019

* Tied the highest winning percentage at 22-0

* Most individual dual match wins (162), breaking the previous mark of 122

* Most shutouts (11), topping the previous record of 10

* Tied the longest dual match win streak at 22

"It was an absolutely fantastic end to our regular season," Arthur said. "And we have so much more ahead of us."

Allegan capped the stretch Saturday by winning the Tiger Duals, finishing with 23 points to outpace Otsego (12), Shrine Catholic (8) and Lansing Christian (5).

The Tigers went unbeaten in duals on the day, posting 8-0 wins over Lansing Christian and Shrine Catholic before closing with a 7-1 victory over Otsego.

Allegan's singles lineup led the way.

At No. 1 singles, Addy Fales rolled to three straight wins, dropping just four games combined. Camdyn Drozd (2S) and Ava Thompson (4S) also went unbeaten to claim flight championships, while Kendall Halstead (3S) placed third.

The Tigers were nearly perfect in doubles play.

Ireland Dewey and Madison Cook (1D), Taylor Fuller and Hanna Kievit (2D), Sophia Augustine and Emma Scheffler (3D), Hailey Gauthier and Kaylee Haas (4D), and Addison Martin and Alice Tange (5D) all finished 3-0 on the day to earn flight titles.

The day before, Allegan turned in another strong showing at the Allegan Quad, finishing 3-0 with identical 7-1 wins over Paw Paw, Calvin Christian and Berrien Springs.

Fales and Drozd again set the tone in singles, each going 3-0 without dropping a set. Halstead also went unbeaten at 3S, including a three-set win against Calvin Christian and a tiebreak victory against Berrien Springs.

In doubles, Fuller and Kievit (2D), Augustine and Scheffler (3D), and Gauthier and Haas (4D) each posted 3-0 records. Dewey and Cook added a pair of wins at 1D, while Alexys Blank and Alice Tange picked up a victory at 5D.

The Quad capped a stretch that began earlier in the week with wins over Galesburg-Augusta (8-0), Kalamazoo Christian (6-2) and Black River (8-0).

The Allegan girls tennis team went 9-0 during a busy week, concluding with a win at the Allegan Duals. (Photo provided)

By Jason Wesseldyk
Sports Editor

OTSEGO—The Otsego girls track and field team turned in a solid showing on its home track, finishing 1-1 in Wolverine Conference dual meet scoring during a four-team meet that also included Plainwell, Paw Paw and Sturgis.

Otsego picked up a win over Plainwell (92-45), while losing to Sturgis (83-54). The Bulldogs weren't scored against Paw Paw, as those teams had already squared off this season.

Plainwell finished 1-2 on the day, earning a 70-67 victory over Paw Paw while dropping meets to Otsego and Sturgis.

Otsego's success was fueled by strong performances across multiple events, led by Olivia Klimp and Skylar Mejeur.

Klimp won the 300-meter hurdles in a time of 49.06 seconds and added a third-place finish in the 100 hurdles (17.46). She also ran a leg on the Bulldogs' winning 4x400 relay team, which posted a time of 4:15.33.

Mejeur captured the 800 (2:21.82) and contributed to the 4x400 relay victory, while also running on the second-place 4x800 relay team (9:49.05) alongside Adelyn Verhage, Addelyn Sabatke and Alayna Verhage.

The distance group continued to produce for Otsego, with Alayna Verhage placing second in both the 1600 (5:19.54) and 3200 (11:39.92).

In the field events, Madden Fitzpatrick won the discus with a throw of 111-0 and placed second in the shot put (34-1). Audrey Holmes added a win in the shot put (35-10.5) and placed fourth in the discus (82-5.25).

Plainwell was paced by a strong showing in the sprint events, highlighted by a victory in the 4x100 relay. The quartet of Hailey Newcomb, Evangeline Coutu, Nyra Cross and Alayna Ranney finished in 50.89 seconds.

Newcomb (2nd, 12.79) and Ranney (3rd, 12.81) led the Trojans in the 100, while Cross added a fourth-place finish (13.21) and later placed third in the 200 (28.39). Coutu also finished fourth in the 200 (28.39) and added points in the hurdles.

In the distance events, Mai Nguyen led Plainwell with a third-place finish in the 1600 (5:26.54) and fourth in the 3200 (11:45.85).

Plainwell's relay teams also turned in strong efforts, with the 4x200 team (1:51.81) placing second and the 4x400 (4:36.72) and 4x800 (10:38.45) teams both finishing third.

Otsego softball drops two to Paw Paw after sweeping Hastings

By Jason Wesseldyk
Sports Editor

PAW PAW—Otsego's softball team was competitive throughout a Wolverine Conference doubleheader Monday, May 4, but came up just short in both games against Paw Paw.

The Bulldogs dropped the opener 4-3 in a tightly played contest. Otsego finished with six hits, matching Paw Paw's total, but couldn't quite find the timely hit late.

Sydneigh Mosher, Addy Lucas and Alyvia Farrell each contributed offensively, while Mikayla Bateman added a hit and reached base multiple times.

Audrey Lingbeek went the distance in the circle, allowing four runs (one earned) on six hits while striking out seven.

Game two followed a similar script, with Paw Paw pulling away late for a 5-0 win. Otsego was limited to four hits in the nightcap.

Addy Lucas and Audrey Lingbeek each recorded hits, and Rylee Knash added another, but the Bulldogs couldn't generate sustained offense against Paw Paw pitching.

The doubleheader came after a strong non-conference showing at Hastings on Thursday, April 30.

Otsego dominated the opener, rolling to a 15-0 win behind a balanced offensive attack that produced 15 hits.

Lucas highlighted the effort with a home run, while Lingbeek and Bateman each had multi-hit games. Farrell, Maddie Back and Sophia Staeven also contributed hits as the Bulldogs scored in bunches early.

Lingbeek was sharp in the circle, tossing four shutout innings and striking out eight while allowing no hits.

Otsego completed the sweep with a 13-3 win in the second game, again leaning on its offense.

Lingbeek delivered another big swing with a home run, while Farrell, Lucas and Bateman each collected multiple hits. Sophia Pierce and Mackenzie Palmer also added key contributions as the Bulldogs totaled 12 hits.

Lucas earned the win in the circle, allowing three runs over five innings.

Fennville softball falls to Bridgman, Wyoming

By Jason Wesseldyk
Sports Editor

It was a tough stretch for the Fennville softball team, which dropped four games across a pair of doubleheaders last week.

The Blackhawks opened the week at home Tuesday, April 28, falling to Bridgman in SAC play by scores of 18-3 and 15-0, both in three innings.

In the opener, Amiyah Johnson led Fennville at the plate with two hits, including a triple. Claudia Rasmussen and Rylee Geister each added a hit.

Fennville then traveled to Wyoming for a nonconference doubleheader Thursday, April 30, where the Blackhawks fell 15-0 in three innings in Game 1 and 14-4 in six innings in Game 2.

Freshman Stella Michele paced the offense with two hits on the day. Hayden Johnson, Amiyah Johnson, Veda Seward and Kenzie McIlwain each contributed a hit.

McIlwain recorded six strikeouts in the circle in the second game, while Hayden Johnson added two strikeouts.

Bulldogs split with Paw Paw in baseball

By Jason Wesseldyk
Sports Editor

PAW PAW — Otsego's baseball team earned a split in Wolverine Conference play Monday, May 4, taking the opener 9-3 before falling 4-0 in the nightcap.

In Game 1, the Bulldogs put together one of their more complete offensive efforts of the season, piling up 13 hits in the win.

Brennan Perry and Nolan Whitmore helped set the tone at the top of the lineup, while multiple players contributed hits as Otsego steadily built its lead.

On the mound, Kaleb Hildebrand worked into the seventh inning, allowing three runs while striking out seven to earn the win.

The Bulldogs couldn't carry that momentum into Game 2, where they were limited to just one hit in a 4-0 loss.

Brennan Perry accounted for Otsego's lone hit, while the offense struggled to generate consistent pressure. Paw Paw pitchers combined for 11 strikeouts in the shutout.

Earlier in the week, Otsego dropped a non-conference doubleheader at Hastings on Thursday, April 30.

The Bulldogs were competitive in the opener before falling 3-2. Otsego finished with eight hits in the game, with contributions throughout the lineup, but couldn't quite get the timely hit late.

Hastings completed the sweep with a 7-1 win in Game 2, pulling away after a close start.

Despite the results, Otsego showed flashes offensively across the four-game stretch, particularly in the Game 1 win over Paw Paw and the opener at Hastings.

HAMILTON—A diversified scoring attack coupled with a stingy defensive effort proved to be a winning combination for the Hamilton girls soccer team against visiting South Haven on Friday, May 1.

Joselyn Paskvan, Emma Slotman, Ellery Rietema, Ashlyn Brown and Kyrza Michalak each scored a goal. Slotman added two assists, with Rietema and Grace Sexton each assisting on one goal.

Zoe Heneveld, a senior in her first year playing keeper, earned the shutout.

The Hawkeyes were on the other end of a shutout on Monday, May 4, falling 3-0 to Unity Christian.

Hamilton coach Brinley Nieuwenhuis praised the defensive play of Ashlyn Brown in the defeat.

PLAINWELL—Otsego closed out its Wolverine Conference dual schedule on a high note Thursday, April 30, taking a 7-1 win over rival Plainwell.

In a matchup that always carries a little extra energy, the Bulldogs controlled play across the lineup, sweeping all four doubles flights and picking up three singles wins.

Hailey Burd led the way at No. 1 singles, earning a 6-1, 6-4 win over Plainwell's Alydia Thom. Ellie Korringa and Alie Bronson also added wins in singles play for Otsego.

On the doubles side, the Bulldogs were dominant.

Mila Garrett and Hope Stender continued their strong season at No. 2 doubles, finishing conference play undefeated at that flight. Otsego also got wins from its No. 1, 3 and 4 doubles teams to secure the team victory.

"This team is in a really great spot to enter the conference tournament and regionals over the next few weeks," Otsego coach Melissa Garrett said.

The win over Plainwell came on the heels of another strong conference performance earlier in the week.

Otsego picked up a 7-1 victory over Niles on Tuesday, April 28, highlighted by a strong showing in singles play.

Burd earned a hard-fought win at No. 1 singles against Cheyenne Small, while Korringa and Lydia Griffith controlled their matches at No. 2 and No. 3 singles. Annabel Trumley added a key win in her first varsity appearance at No. 4 singles.

Doubles play proved more competitive.

At No. 2 doubles, Garrett and Stender rallied for a comeback win in three sets, while Laney Sweet and Rachel Breese battled to secure a win at No. 3 doubles. Emma Gilson and Brooklynn Cockerel added a straight-sets win (6-2, 6-3) at No. 4 doubles.

Otsego's No. 1 doubles team of Stella Houseman and Sara McCaw pushed their match to a third set before coming up just short.

With the pair of wins, the Bulldogs carry momentum into the final stretch of the season, with the conference tournament and regionals up next.

Wildcats earn sweep over G.R. South Christian

By Jason Wesseldyk
Sports Editor

BYRON CENTER—It took extra innings and a clutch swing, but Wayland softball team earned an 11-8 win over South Christian in the opening game of an OK Gold twin bill on Monday, May 4.

With the game knotted at 8-8, Wildcat Madi Ludema stepped to the plate and drove a pitch to left field for a 3-run homer to provide the winning runs.

Ludema, the starting pitcher, worked a scoreless frame in the bottom of the eighth to seal the win.

Wayland capped the sweep with a 12-5 victory in game two.

The Wildcats appeared to be in control early in the first game, scoring twice in the first inning and eventually building a 7-2 lead following a 5-run uprising in the second frame.

Mackenzie Kositzky drew a bases-loaded walk and Eme Carlson was hit with a pitch with the bases loaded to account for the first-inning runs. In the second inning, Kositzky delivered the biggest blow, launching a grand slam to center field.

Wayland added another run in the third on a Clara Dutkiewicz groundout, but South Christian chipped away and eventually erased the deficit. The Sailors tied the game at 8-8 in the bottom of the sixth, setting up a tense finish.

Ludema went the distance in the circle, allowing eight runs (three earned) on 13 hits. She struck out 10 without a walk.

Kaylee Lown and Ludema each had two hits, while Wayland showed patience at the plate with seven walks.

The Wildcats carried that momentum into Game 2 and never let things get tight.

Wayland jumped out early, taking advantage of an error and a Kositzky two-run double to grab a 3-0 lead in the first inning.

The lead kept growing from there.

In the second, Lown and Ludema each delivered RBI doubles before Kositzky added a two-run single. In the third, Lown struck again with a two-run double and Rae Stallard followed with an RBI single as the Wildcats built a comfortable cushion.

Lown led the way at the plate, going 3-for-3 with two doubles, while Kositzky drove in four runs and finished 2-for-4. Stallard added two hits and two stolen bases as part of an 11-hit team effort.

Kositzky earned the win in the circle, allowing four runs on 11 hits over seven innings while striking out six and walking none.

GOBLES—The Allegan track teams turned in a number of solid performances Wednesday, April 29, at a SAC meet hosted by Gobles.

The meet was scored as a series of duals, with the Tigers' boys going 1-1—defeating Watervliet 71-62 and falling to Gobles 78-59—while the girls dropped both of their matchups.

Despite some tough weather conditions, Allegan found success across multiple events.

On the boys side, Kellen Chalupa led the way with wins in both distance events, taking the 800 in 2:06.40 and the 1,600 in 4:51.51. He also ran on the winning 1,600 relay (3:51.29) and 3,200 relay teams.

Loghan Murphy backed that up with a third-place finish in the 800 (2:16.24) and fourth in the 1,600 (5:06.12), while Thomas Sigler claimed the 3,200 title in 11:21.86.

In the sprints, Brody McDade placed third in both the 100 (12.17) and 200 (25.30), while Bradyn Kosiorowski took third in the 400 (56.17). Nathan Martinez added a fourth-place finish in the 400 (57.18) and a third in the long jump (17-7), and Chase Clemons placed third in the 110 hurdles (20.59) and fourth in the 300 hurdles (52.69).

Field events also produced points for the Tigers. Hauk Henrickson won the shot put with a throw of 35-4.5, while Connor Dittenbir placed fourth in the shot put (31-3.5) and fourth in the discus (85-5). Brandon Thrash added a fourth-place finish in the high jump (5-5), and John DeLaet finished second in the pole vault (8-6).

Allegan's relay teams were a highlight, with the 800 relay (1:39.68) and 1,600 relay both earning first-place finishes, while the 400 relay placed third (48.98) and the 3,200 relay took second (9:30.96).

Bailee Dilley led the girls effort with another strong all-around performance. She won the 200 meters against Watervliet in 29.36, the 400 in 1:04.44, and added field-event wins in the long jump (14-4.5) and pole vault (11-0). Against Gobles, she added three more first-place finishes (200, long jump, pole vault) and a runner-up showing in the 400 (1:02.76).

Eliza DeLaet paced the throwing events, including a win in the discus (74-9)—a personal best—and a second-place finish in the shot put (24-9). Odessa Barnhart also set a PR in the discus at 48-1.

Nevaeh Williams added a first-place finish in the 100 against Watervliet and placed second against Gobles (14.85), while Anna Billman took second in the 3,200 and third against Gobles in 15:08.66.

Alyxandra Falor contributed with a third-place finish in the 100 hurdles (23.64), and the 400 relay team of Falor, DeLaet, Williams and Aylah Copeland also earned a win against Watervliet.

OTSEGO—Jack Cook put together a standout day to lead Otsego to a perfect showing at its home invitational, as the Bulldogs went 2-0 in Wolverine Conference dual meet scoring.

Cook won three individual events and anchored a relay victory, helping Otsego secure wins over Sturgis (95-42) and Plainwell (95-41).

Plainwell also turned in a strong day, finishing 2-1 with victories over Sturgis (69-68) and Paw Paw (73.5-62.5). Otsego wasn't scored against Paw Paw, as those teams had met earlier this season.

Cook led the way for Otsego by winning the 100 meters (11.30), 200 meters (22.10) and 400 meters (50.66). He also ran the anchor leg on the Bulldogs' winning 4x400 relay team that edged Plainwell, finishing in 3:35.02.

Otsego's distance crew also made an impact.

Kenny Sheffer won the 3200 (10:17.24) and added a runner-up finish in the 1600 (4:40.71), while Ryan Long was second in the 800 (2:08.78) and third in the 1600 (4:44.34). George Whitaker placed third in the 3200 (10:41.47) and Gunnar Djerf took fourth in the 3200 (10:51.42).

In the field events, Alex Robbins claimed the discus title with a throw of 157-0 and was runner-up in the shot put (52-1.5).

Otsego also picked up a win in the high jump from Jaylen Newell, who cleared 6-2.

Plainwell was led by several strong individual performances.

Hiro Nguyen won the 800 (2:04.14) and also ran on the Trojans' 4x400 relay team that finished second. Donovan Ryan captured the 1600 title (4:39.67).

In the field events, Sawyer Lilly won the shot put with a throw of 52-9 and finished second in the discus (144-5).

SHEPHERD — In a meet loaded with deep fields and standout competition, Saugatuck's Novella DeGraaf made sure the Trailblazers had a moment at the top.

DeGraaf claimed a first-place finish in the 100-meter hurdles, winning in 15.24 seconds while also placing third in the prelims earlier in the day. She added a 13th-place finish in the 300 hurdles (52.28), giving Saugatuck a strong all-around performance in one of the meet's most competitive events.

Competing in the small school division, Saugatuck's girls finished fifth with 64 points, while the boys placed fifth with 68.5 points.

Behind DeGraaf, the Saugatuck girls turned in a number of solid efforts.

In the distance events, Alina Martinson (11:10.49) and Kamryn Sixberry (11:11.24) finished 43rd and 44th, respectively, in a loaded 3,200-meter run, while Sixberry added a 41st-place finish in the 3,200 (11:48.92) and Martinson placed 45th (11:55.24). Lyvia Curtis also broke 12:05 in the event, finishing in 12:03.04.

Ellyse Heyser led the way in the 1,600 with a time of 5:40.17, while she also clocked a 2:34.39 in the 800.

Plainwell soccer cruises past Niles

PLAINWELL—Plainwell's girls soccer team closed out a three-game stretch on a high note Monday, May 4, cruising to an 8-0 win over Niles.

The Trojans wasted little time taking control and spread the scoring around in a balanced offensive effort.

Anna Eldred led the way with three goals and three assists, while Alayna Eldred added a pair of goals and an assist. Alyssa Weldon, Shea Hodapp and Ella Bridges also found the back of the net.

Lucy Benson and Caitlyn Ridgeway each contributed assists, and Olivia Ranger recorded the shutout in goal.

The win came after a tough 2-1 loss to Forest Hills Central on Friday, May 1.

Plainwell's lone goal came from Alayna Eldred, with Anna Eldred picking up the assist.

Despite the loss, the Trojans were competitive throughout against a strong non-conference opponent.

Plainwell opened the stretch with a dominant 7-0 win over Sturgis on Wednesday, April 29.

Alayna Eldred had a big night, scoring four goals to pace the offense.

Ali Taylor, Weldon and Hodapp also scored, while Emma Taylor, Aubrie Witt and Ridgeway combined for the assists.

Ranger earned the shutout in net as the Trojans controlled play from start to finish.

With the win over Niles, Plainwell moved to 9-3 overall and remained unbeaten in conference play at 4-0.

City Posts $100 Reward to Get Line on Vandals: One hundred dollars reward will be given by the city of Allegan for information leading to the arrest of vandals destroying city property, according to action taken by the city council at their regular bi-monthly meeting held Monday night at the city hall.

City Manager P. H. Bedewais reported considerable vandalism and damage had been done to city property over a period of several months. Considerable petty thievery, breaking of street lights and tampering with parking meters have been reported. Sunday night thieves siphoned the gas from a car owned by one James Mahn and removed the radio from his car, which was parked near his office and residence.

Howard Huitt, Allegan, told the council he had ordered two specially designed sanitary trucks for collecting garbage with the intention of starting a garbage collection business here. He said he planned to operate in Otsego and Plainwell and hoped for an exclusive permit in Allegan.

City Attorney Rex Orton said the city had the right to designate an exclusive garbage collector and set rates, but the council did not take action on the matter.

Councilmen informally approved a suggestion from the city manager for an "open house" next September at the city's new diesel plant.

Otsego woman 'fair' after apartment fire: A young Otsego woman remains in "fair" condition this week in Kalamazoo's Borgess Hospital, where she is being treated for injuries she suffered in a fire that destroyed an Otsego apartment building last Thursday morning.

Shirley Silva, a resident of Academy Apartments at 340 W. Hammond St. in Otsego, reportedly suffered crushed vertebrae after jumping from the window of a second floor apartment.

Mrs. Silva, who dropped two children to safety before the same window before jumping, was the most seriously hurt among four residents and two firemen who suffered injuries during the fire.

OTHER TENANTS injured included the building's owner, Owen Pattison, who was treated for cuts to his arm and head and released from Pipp Community Hospital; Jerry Wine, who suffered a broken ankle jumping from a second floor window; and John Mollitor, who suffered smoke inhalation before being rescued from his basement apartment by Otsego firemen.

The blaze gutted the 55-year-old apartment building, doing an estimated $70,000 damage and leaving 23 residents of the eight-unit structure homeless.

Winchester Inn may become home of county foundation: The Allegan City Council brokered an agreement removing a final obstacle to sale of one of the city's most visible landmarks. As a result, the Rossman-Winchester House at 524 Marshall St. may soon move from private into public hands.

The Allegan County Community Foundation has already set terms for purchase of the building from current owners Dave and Denise Ferber. The Ferbers run the Winchester Inn Bed and Breakfast in the historic home.

ACCF executive director Lisa Richlich said the $270,000 purchase agreement was contingent on a zoning variance to allow commercial activities by the foundation in the residential-two dwelling.

"That was the last hurdle," Richlich said.

The city's zoning board of appeals had denied the variance due to neighborhood concerns about potential traffic and security problems generated by ACCF occupation of the building. Following procedure, ACCF filed suit in Allegan County Circuit Court to overturn the ZBA decision. City manager Lisa Sutterfield put the stumbling block in a nutshell.

"The current R-2 zoning does not allow an office building in that part of the city," Sutterfield said.

At a special council meeting Tuesday, May 1, city officials offered a compromise. Mayor Craig vanMelle said an Allegan ordinance allows the city council to play the role of arbiter. The agreement answers both neighborhood concerns and ACCF needs, vanMelle said.

Allegan County schools are the winners in May 4 election: When the dust settled, only 14-20% of the voters made the decisions on the May 4, 2021 election proposals. Allegan Public, Holland Public, South Haven Public and Zeeland Public Schools asked voters to approve bonding proposals while Hudsonville Public and Zeeland Public Schools requested operating millage renewals.

Bonding Proposals focused on anything from the creation of a new K-5 elementary complex and middle school science wing in Allegan to smaller construction projects in Holland and Zeeland to remodeling and equipping schools, improving instructional technology, purchasing school buses and developing athletic facilities.

These bonding proposals spotlighted the fact that voters would not be paying more school millage than they had in previous years. For several districts, millage rates were slightly reduced. To some would-be voters, a school millage reduction seemed impossible, but because previous millage was being retired, the continuation of those mills would cover the costs of the new projects at no increase to property owners.

The request for $87.5 million by Allegan Public Schools was passed, thanks primarily to Allegan City and Township voters, by about an 18% voter turnout with 1308 ayes to 1107 nays. The approval will not raise school mills on property taxes from previous years as a new elementary is constructed and improvements made to all schools.

Allegan Public is ready to move forward. The plan is to illicit citizen ideas regarding the new construction and improvements. Superintendent James Antoine shared, "I have a meeting with our architecture and construction management teams. We will be coordinating the next steps at that time. Plus, we will be working on the preliminary work to sell the first series of bonds."

Otsego firemen battled for more than three hours on two fronts last Thursday morning to quell flames that virtually destroyed the Academy Apartments at 340 W. Hammond St. in Otsego. Four tenants and two firemen were hurt as a result of the blaze that did an estimated $70,000 damage to the eight-unit building, most of which was not covered by insurance.

CHESHIRE TOWNSHIP
ALLEGAN COUNTY, MICHIGAN
DUCK LAKE IMPROVEMENT SPECIAL ASSESSMENT DISTRICT

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING ON PROPOSED DUCK LAKE 2026-2030 SUPPLEMENTAL IMPROVEMENT PROJECT PLANS AND ESTIMATED COSTS AT MAY 16, 2026 TOWNSHIP BOARD SPECIAL MEETING

TO: THE RESIDENTS AND PROPERTY OWNERS OF THE TOWNSHIP OF CHESHIRE, ALLEGAN COUNTY, MICHIGAN; OWNERS OF PROPERTY ABUTTING AND/OR WITH DEEDED ACCESS TO DUCK LAKE IN LAND SECTION 36 OF CHESHIRE TOWNSHIP; AND ANY OTHER INTERESTED PERSONS:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE at the request of residents and property owners of the existing Duck Lake Improvement Project Special Assessment District created in 2014 for a 20-year term, the Cheshire Township Board is considering a supplemental lake improvement project in 2026-2030 pursuant to a comprehensive study of Duck Lake by Restorative Lake Sciences (RLS) and the resulting report dated July 2025 recommending, among other things, the following be undertaken in 2026-2030 to supplement the aquatic vegetation and control project previously approved for 2024-2028, with the cost of such supplemental project to be financed by special assessments on the benefited properties in the District that will replace the previously approved special assessments for the remaining years of the 2024-2028 aquatic vegetation control project:

- the deployment of TimberChar filters at selected inlets/drains and other locations on the lake, under the technical expertise and guidance of RLS;
- water quality data acquisition and analysis by RLS;
- technical support by RLS for remediation technologies (including permitting);
- a two-year extension of the aquatic vegetation control project previously approved for 2024-2028 to align the term of that part of the supplemental project with the other parts of the supplemental project, including technical guidance by RLS for the remaining years of the existing 2024-2028 aquatic vegetation control project as now proposed to be extended to include 2029-2030.

The proposed Duck Lake Improvement Special Assessment District within which the cost of the foregoing improvements is proposed to be specially assessed is described as follows:

All lots/parcels or portions thereof abutting Duck Lake or with deeded access to Duck Lake in land section 36, as shown on the existing special assessment district map.

The Township Board has received plans for the proposed supplemental lake improvement project in 2026-2030, together with an estimate of the costs of the project in the amount of $356,365, which includes a 10% "contingency" for inflation-related or other adjustments, and legal/ administrative fees of $7,500 for the 2025-2026 special assessment process.

The Township Board at its March 26, 2026 meeting passed a Resolution tentatively declaring its intention to proceed with the requested supplemental lake improvement project in 2026-2030 pursuant to the preliminary plans and cost estimates, without change to the boundaries of the special assessment district as created in 2014. A public hearing on this proposed supplemental improvement project and the estimated costs of same will be held at the Cheshire Township Hall at 471 41st just north of 104th Avenue, Cheshire, Michigan, on May 16, 2026 in conjunction with a special meeting of the Township Board beginning at 10:00 a.m.

At this hearing/meeting the Board will consider any written objections to any of the foregoing matters which are filed with the Board prior to or at the hearing, as well as any corrections or changes to the proposed supplemental plans or estimate of costs. The supplemental project plans, estimate of costs, and a map of the existing special assessment district may be examined at the office of the Township Clerk and may further be examined at the public hearing.

If the Township Board determines to proceed with the 2026-2030 supplemental improvement project a second public hearing will be held at a later date to be set by the Township Board for the purpose of reviewing and hearing objections to the proposed 2026-2030 special assessment roll allocating the costs of the project among the various properties included in the special assessment district. Appearance and protest at such a second public hearing or as otherwise allowed by 1962 PA 162, as amended, is required in order to preserve a right to appeal the amount of any such special assessment to the Michigan Tax Tribunal within 30 days after the confirmation of a special assessment roll. Formal notice of any such second public hearing will be published in a newspaper and mailed to affected property owners as required by law. A re-determination of the actual costs to be specially assessed in 2027-2030 for the improvements in 2028-2030 may be made by the Township Board on an annual basis without further Notice if allowed by law. A proposed special assessment roll for a continuation project in any years subsequent to 2030 will not be approved without new plans and cost estimates and a further hearing thereon and on extending the term of the existing special assessment district beyond 2034.

The Township Board tentatively anticipates proposing special assessments for the 2026-2030 supplemental project as follows, but subject to change at the second public hearing:

- $2,909.12 for each lot/parcel abutting Duck Lake (with all contiguous lots/parcels in the same ownership specially assessed as one benefit unit), levied and payable in five annual installments of $727.88 in 2026 and $545.31 in each of years 2027-2030.
- $1,454.88 for each lot/parcel with deeded access to Duck Lake (with all contiguous lots/parcels in the same ownership specially assessed as one-half benefit unit), levied and payable in five annual installments of $363.94 in 2026 and $272.66 in each of years 2027-2030.

The foregoing hearings and all proceedings associated with these special assessment matters will be conducted in accordance with and pursuant to 1954 PA 188, as amended, the Michigan Open Meetings Act, and any other applicable law.

Cheshire Township will provide necessary reasonable auxiliary aids and services at the meeting/hearing to individuals with disabilities, such as signers for the hearing impaired and audiotapes of printed materials being considered, upon reasonable notice to the Township. PLEASE TAKE NOTICE at the request of residents and owners of property with frontage on Swan Lake and/or with deeded/special access to Swan Lake the Cheshire Township Board is proposing to establish the Swan Lake improvement Special Assessment District for the purpose of lake management, aquatic vegetation control, and related services to improve Swan Lake, and is considering a specific Swan Lake Improvement project proposed to be undertaken in 2027-2036 pursuant to a comprehensive study of Swan Lake by Restorative Lake Sciences (RLS), to be financed by special assessments levied in 2026-2035.

The 2027-2036 improvement project recommended by RLS pursuant to the comprehensive study and the resulting report includes, among other things, the following components proposed to be undertaken in 2027-2036:

- the deployment of TimberChar filters at selected inlets/drains and other locations on the lake, under the technical expertise and guidance of RLS;
- water quality data acquisition and analysis by RLS;
- strategic weed control;
- technical support by RLS for remediation technologies (including permitting).

The proposed Swan Lake Improvement Special Assessment District within which the cost of the foregoing improvements is proposed to be specially assessed is described as follows:

> All lots/parcels or portions thereof in land sections 15, 16, 21 and 22 of Cheshire Township with frontage on Swan Lake, and all backlots/parcels or portions thereof in those land sections with a deeded or other special right of access to Swan Lake pursuant to a dedicated outlot or other private access, as shown on the proposed special assessment district map.

The Township Board has received plans for the proposed lake improvement project in 2027-2036, together with an estimate of the costs of the project in the amount of $361,000, which includes a 5% "buffer" for inflation-related adjustments, and legal/administrative fees of $7,500 for the 2025-2026 special assessment process.

The Township Board at its March 26, 2026 meeting passed a Resolution tentatively declaring its intention to establish the special assessment district and proceed with the legal process for the 2027-2036 project. A public hearing on the proposed special assessment district and this improvement project and the estimated costs of same will be held at the Cheshire Township Hall at 471 41st just north of 104th Avenue, Cheshire, Michigan, on May 16, 2026 in conjunction with a special meeting of the Township Board beginning at 10:00 a.m.

If the Township Board determines to establish the special assessment district and proceed with the 2027-2036 improvement project, a second public hearing will be held at a later date to be set by the Township Board for the purpose of reviewing and hearing objections to the proposed 2026-2035 special assessment roll allocating the costs of the project among the various properties included in the special assessment district. Appearance and protest at such a second public hearing or as otherwise allowed by 1962 PA 162, as amended, is required in order to preserve a right to appeal the amount of any such special assessment to the Michigan Tax Tribunal within 30 days after the confirmation of a special assessment roll. A re-determination of the actual costs to be specially assessed in 2026-2035 for the improvements in 2027-2036 may be made by the Township Board on an annual basis without further Notice if allowed by law (increase of 10% or less). A proposed special assessment roll for a continuation project in any years subsequent to 2036 will not be approved without new plans and cost estimates and a further hearing thereon.

The Township Board tentatively anticipates proposing special assessments for the 2027-2036 project as follows, but subject to change at the public hearing:

- $4,454.40 for each non-commercial lot/parcel or portion thereof with frontage on Swan Lake (with all contiguous lots/parcels in the same ownership specially assessed as one benefit unit), levied and payable in 10 equal annual installments of $445.44) in each of years 2026-2035.

- $2,227.20 for each backlot/parcel or portion thereof with deeded or other special right of access to Swan Lake pursuant to a dedicated outlot or other private access to Swan Lake (with all contiguous lots/parcels in the same ownership specially assessed as one-half benefit unit), levied and payable in 10 equal annual installments of $222.72) in each of years 2026-2035.

Note: the specific special assessment amounts on each of these three properties will be calculated subsequent to the May 16 public hearing/meeting and will be included in the legal Notice for the second public hearing on the proposed 2026-2035 special assessment roll.

Festival ends in clean sweep for kids

By Gari Voss

The Allegan Community Players' 12th Annual One Acts Festival on the weekend of May 1, 2026, is in the books. The competition was fierce as each day a one act of youth performers went toe to toe with a one act of adult performers. It was a clean sweep as the kids received the most votes from the extremely unbiased and impartial audience.

The winners of the Friday evening, May 1, 2026, performance was Alien Nation that out maneuvered Moving Back. To the losers went the consequence of doing a live Facebook post explaining why Alien Nation deserved the win. It is available on their Facebook page.

Saturday evening found oRANGE taking on Priceless. Again, the kids of oRANGE won hands down with hardly a distinguishable word uttered. The consequence found the Priceless duo eating a concoction of baby food.

That left the Sunday matinee when adults needed to show their stuff or be swept. Who's the Dummy Now joked their way to victory over the adults' We're Toast. The youngsters had no problem pelting the losers with cream pies.

With another successful weekend of live theater finished, the Allegan Community Players look forward to auditions for their summer play which is performed in Mahan Park on June 20 and 21. Auditions will be held at the Griswold Auditorium on Sunday, May 10 and Monday, May 11, 2026, from 6-8:30pm. All are encouraged to come and audition.

The kids from Alien Nation had no problem standing back and watching the trio from Moving Back explain the wonderful qualities of the young actors and their play. Fri., May 1, 2026, opened the weekend of the 12 Annual One Acts Festival: Kids vs Adults at the Griswold Auditorium. Photo: G. Voss

Faces in the Crowd

Time to pick up your ukulele and start strumming Tip Toe Through the Tulips. It is Tulip Time in Holland. This week's question: Are you going? Do you avoid it? What are your thoughts on Holland's big festival?

-Man near the Fennville hardware store: "When the kids were younger we used to take them there. We liked the tulips and the Dutch dancing, but after a few years it was sort of the same old same old and the kids didn't want to go. So, I guess it's been a while."

-Older couple, same location; Man: "No, too much traffic." Woman: "And the food is way too expensive. It's worse than the stands at the fair."

-Woman, near the Fennville grocery store: "I guess we should. It's traditional and people come all over to see it, but we never get around to it."

-Man near the Allegan library: "Naw. If I want to look at tulips I got some at home. If the deer don't eat them this year, I guess. Last year they got to them and the lilies."

-Woman, same location: "We had a farm near Hamilton, so we always went. I always wanted to be a Dutch dancer, but my folks said no."

-Friend with her: "That's the way my folks were, too. We grew up strict Reformed, and dancing was forbidden, off limits. I still like to see it."

-Woman near A-Tech: "I go with a friend because we like to see the quilts and art. My husband isn't big on that sort of thing, so it's more fun without him, to be truthful." Sly smile, "And we splurge on a good lunch while we are there. Well, I bring him home some Dutch chocolates."

-Man near the Huntington Bank: "One of the best things I did for my folks, and this was years ago, was to take them to Holland Civic for the Lawrence Welk Show. They always watched it on tv and loved it, so we went. They talked about it for years. Some of the big stars were there."

-Woman, same location: "A couple of us went up there last year and I didn't think it was as good as I remembered it. I told the lady friends that we ought to give it a chance this year, so we're going. I don't know what day, yet."

-Man near the Allegan Post Office: "The wife would like to go up and see the flowers and walk around a little, maybe take in the dancing. So, we're going. You know, 'happy wife, happy life' like they say."

-Man with him, "[name] you are the last of the true romantics. Glad it's you."

-Older couple near Allegan City Hall; Woman: "You know, we haven't done it for a few years. I think I'd like to see if. Let's go!" Man: "All right. We need to get their schedule." Woman: "I'm sure it's on-line. Good!"
